Section C (5 x 2m)

Comprehension MCQ

Read the passage below and answer questions 15 to 19 based on the passage.

The old lady lived in an old cottage on the hill. The painting was peeling, the roof leaked, the windows were broken and the door flapped open when the winds blew.

"You can't stay here, you know," said Mr Worthy from the Housing Department. "We'll give you another one down in the town."

5

"No, thank you," said the old lady. "I want to live where the moonflowers grow."

"I can't see any flowers!" snapped Mr Worthy, staring out into the overgrown garden. "If you don't want to live in another house, you can move into a home for old people. Some have gardens."

10

"Do moonflowers grow there?" asked the old lady.

"I have no idea," said Mr Worthy. "We're going to have to pull this house down and that's that."

Mr Worthy put on his coat and stepped outside, slamming the door behind him. He thought the old lady was quite mad! As he started off down the garden path, the moon came out from behind a cloud and there was a rustling sound behind him.

15

Mr Worthy turned and it was then that he saw the beautiful moonflowers. Their petals uncurled as the moonbeams touched them and they glowed in the pale light.

20

Mr Worthy went back and knocked on the old lady's door.

"You can stay here," he said. "We'll repair your house. Of course you must stay where the moonflowers grow."

Adapted from "Where Moonflowers Grow" by Ella Baker.

For each question from 15 to 19, four options are given. One of them is the correct answer. Make your choice (1, 2, 3 or 4). Shade the correct oval (1, 2, 3 or 4) on the OAS.

Section G (5 x 2m)

Comprehension Open

Read the passage below and answer questions 32 to 36.

Ben and John knew that they were in trouble. They had started out on a fishing trip. However, they were now caught in the middle of a storm-tossed sea. The duo struggled to row the boat. Each time they got close to the shore, sudden gusts of wind pushed them back out to sea. Suddenly, a wave crashed down on the boat and ripped the oar from Ben's hand.

5

Mario looked at his watch. It was not near closing hours yet. However, due to the storm, Mario knew no one would visit his shop to rent a boat. So he turned off the lights and locked the door securely. He turned and walked hurriedly home. Suddenly, he stopped in his tracks. Something bobbed up and then disappeared behind a rolling wave. Immediately, he sensed trouble.

10

Within minutes, Mario was standing in his boat. He pushed the start button. The boat started to move.

Out in the sea, Ben and John drifted farther from shore. Struggling to stay afloat, the boys had their arms around each other. They knew there was little chance of them being found for they had told no one about their trip.

15

Mario kept his eyes glued on the spot and soon confirmed that two people had been thrown into the wild sea. Quickly and carefully, Mario moved closer to the struggling swimmers and ~~stopped the engine~~. "Catch!" he yelled, throwing the rope to the swimmers and pulling them onto the deck of the boat. Then, he wrapped blankets around the boys before starting the engine again.

20

As the boat moved, Mario looked at the duo and said, "Both of you nearly drowned!" Ben and John, who were grateful to their saviour, thanked him profusely.

ALL ANSWERS MUST BE IN COMPLETE SENTENCES.

32. What were Ben and John doing out in the sea?

33. Why did Mario close his shop earlier than the usual time?

34. What was the 'Something' in line 9 that Mario saw out at sea?

35. Which sentence tells you that the boys felt that they were not hopeful of being rescued?

36. How did Mario save Ben and John as soon as he was near them?
