Read the passage below carefully and answer questions 16 to 20.

Ken's mother walked into his room to wake him. Before she could do that, he woke up with a fright saying, "Oh no! I am going to be late for work." He jumped out of his bed and accidentally knocked his leg against the table beside his bed causing the table lamp to drop on the floor and shatter to pieces. He quickly cleared up the mess and washed up. He then dashed out of his house.

When Ken came out from the lift, he saw his bus approaching the bus stop and started to sprint towards it. The bus sped off when he was about to reach the bus stop. He waited impatiently for the next bus to come. Luck was not on his side. The next bus arrived after ten minutes but it was packed to the brim. Ken could not get on to the bus. Groaning in despair, he decided to take a taxi instead.

He was relieved as he managed to hop into a taxi within minutes. When he finally arrived at his workplace, he was shocked to discover that he did not have his wallet. The taxi driver demanded the taxi fare and Ken had no money on him. The taxi driver thought that Ken was trying to get a free ride and he was furious. He did not want to listen to Ken's explanation and they got into a big argument at the side of the road.

The situation became tense and Ken was feeling very frustrated. Just then, he spotted his colleague, Mark, getting out of a car. He immediately ran over and asked Mark to help him out. Mark nodded and took out some money from his wallet. The taxi driver finally got his fare and drove off grumpily. Ken was relieved that his unlucky day finally came to an end. Little did he know that he had dropped his wallet while running after the bus!

For each question from 16 to 20, four options are given. One of them is the correct answer. Make your choice (1, 2, 3 or 4). Shade the correct oval (1, 2, 3 or 4) on the Optical Answer Sheet.

Part 9: Comprehension Open - Ended (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 34 to 38.

One rainy day, while Mom was out visiting her sister, Dad decided to take us to a movie. After lunch, we put on our raincoats, took a large umbrella, and walked to the movie theatre which was not far away.

On our way, my three-year-old brother, Ben, jumped into every puddle and got the bottom of his pants wet. Dad took him to the toilet and stuffed some paper towels up each pant leg. Ben complained at first. After Dad bought him a big box of popcorn, he forgot all about his stuffed pants.

We quickly found our seats before the lights dimmed. Dad had chosen the movie "A Bear's Life". I reminded Ben to sit quietly during the movie. At first I wondered why the people in front of us were turning around. Then I realised that Ben had started throwing popcorn. When I told Dad about it, he tapped Ben's leg and warned him that the popcorn would be taken away.

Just at that moment, the first bear appeared on the screen. Ben sat still and watched. After a while, I forgot all about him and concentrated on the movie. It was much better than I thought it would be. Soon I was out of popcorn and turned to ask Ben for some of his. I was shocked to see he was gone!

"Hey, Dad," I whispered urgently. "Ben isn't in his seat!"

"I'll go and find him," Dad replied anxiously. Just then, Ben popped out from below an empty seat in the first row asking where the bears were!

Write your answers in complete sentences.

34. How did the writer and his family get to the movie theatre?

35. Why did Dad stuff paper towels up each leg of Ben's pants?

36. Why did the people sitting in front of the writer's family turn around?

37. When did the writer know that Ben was missing?

38. Which sentence in the fourth paragraph tells us that the writer thought the movie was not really interesting at first?
