Section D: Comprehension

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions.

There was once a very clever man named Ben. Many people respected him and always used his clever ideas to solve their problems.

One day, Ben was walking along the road when he saw a stall owner shouting at a man. Ben walked up to the two men to find out what was going on.

"What is wrong?" asked Ben.

"This man stood at my stall and smelled my food. He has enjoyed my food, but he does not want to pay for it," said the angry man.

"I am a poor man, sir. I have no money to pay him," the poor man told Ben.

"You have smelled my food, so you have to pay for it," the stall owner insisted.

Ben thought for a while and said, "This man is too poor to pay you. I will help him pay." Then, Ben reached into his pocket and pulled out a bag. He held the bag in front of the stall owner and shook it. Instantly, the stall owner held out his hand to grab the bag of coins. Ben pulled his hand away and kept his bag of coins.

"Did you hear the jingle of the coins?" Ben asked the stall owner.

"Of course I did," the stall owner replied.

"Well then," Ben continued, "this man smelled your food and you listened to my coins. I have paid you for smelling your food," Ben said.
