Section E: Comprehension Multiple-Choice Questions (5 x 1 mark)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 31 to 35.

Mould is so commonly found in our hot and humid climate that we should not be surprised to see black stains on the window frames, walls or ceilings. Mould is not only unsightly, but also bad for the health. It can cause eye, nose and throat irritation, coughing and sneezing, wheezing and shortness of breath – in other words, all kinds of allergic reactions.

5

Mould is a form of fungus which is usually black or white, though it can be of any colour. Mould thrives on moisture, which may be due to high humidity, or a lack of air flow. You would most likely spot it on window sills, carpets, and particularly on the walls in steamy areas such as kitchens, bathrooms and laundry areas.

10

There are simple things you can do to prevent mould growing in your homes. The easiest way is to open a window or turn on a fan. The idea is to dry out the wet or damp areas. When cooking, leave the kitchen window open or switch on the exhaust fan. Let the fan run for a few minutes after you have finished cooking.

Choose the most suitable answer and shade the correct oval (1, 2, 3 or 4) on the Optical Answer Sheet.

31. Why is mould so common around us?

- (1) Our rooms are dirty.
- (2) People often fall sick.
- (3) The climate is wet and humid.
- (4) It grows from black stains on our walls.

32. Mould is bad for health because it _____.

- (1) is unsightly
- (2) prevents air flow in a room
- (3) causes eye, nose and throat irritation
- (4) causes the climate to be hot and humid

33. The word 'allergic' in line 5 means _____.

- (1) awful
- (2) painful
- (3) unusual
- (4) sensitive

34. We can prevent mould from growing by _____.

- (1) drying out wet and damp areas
- (2) cleaning the stains off our walls
- (3) closing the window after cooking
- (4) switching off the exhaust fan after cooking

35. Which one of following statements is true?

- (1) Fungus can be brown in colour.
- (2) Mould can help you to stop coughing and sneezing.
- (3) A good air flow in the room promotes the growth of fungus.
- (4) Close the windows and switch on the fans to prevent growth of mould.

Section I: Comprehension Cloze (5 x 1 mark)

Read the following passage carefully. Fill in each blank with a suitable word.

Once upon a time, there was a man with a large, ugly wart on his forehead. This unsightly (51) _____ caused him much dismay. Passers-by often stared and made rude remarks about it.

One day, he took shelter in the trunk of a hollow tree after getting lost in the dark. In the middle of the night, a large group of fairies appeared. The man, peeping from his hiding (52) _____, was frightened out of his wits. After a while, the fairies began to eat and drink, sing and dance. Wanting to join in the fun, the man (53) _____ all about his fear and crept out of his hollow tree to join in.

As the sun began to (54) _____, the leader among the fairies said to the man, "You are very jolly! We've never had so much fun!" To thank him, she granted him a wish and took away the large, ugly wart from his forehead.

The man left the forest in glee, pleased with the great night he had had. Not only that, he got (55) _____ of his wart. The man could not believe his luck and could hardly wait to share his story with his friends.

Section J: Comprehension Open-ended Questions (5 x 2 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 56 to 60. Answer the following questions. Write your answers in complete sentences.

Not long after the school term began, Ben was admitted to the hospital. He had been in there before several times. The doctors would run test after test on him and give him injections.

"Just routine," they said, but I did not believe them. For one thing, Mum seemed so down about it. That day, I caught the end of what she was saying on the phone when I came home from school. 5

"Don't think the doctors will operate again. It's too risky. It's the heart problem too I think," Mum said.

She sighed and paused. I could hear a sort of quacking, crackling sound. It was Aunt Janice. She speaks so loudly through the phone that you have to hold the receiver about half a mile away from your ear if you do not want to get your eardrum blasted. 10

Dad was not at home much due to work. When he was home, he had sort of changed. When he had first got his travelling job, it had been wonderful every time he came back. Clowning around, he would fuss over us. However, when Ben became ill, Dad no longer did that. 15

Adapted from 'Red Sky in the Morning' by Elizabeth Laird

56. Where had Ben been to several times?

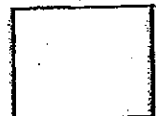

57. Which sentence in paragraph 2 tells us that Mum was upset?

58. Who does 'she' in line 9 refer to?

59. Why did Mum have to hold the receiver 'half a mile away' (line 11) from her ear when Auntie Janice was talking?

60. How did Dad behave after Ben became ill?
