One morning, nine-year-old Anaiah Rucker and her five-year-old sister, Camry, left for the school bus stop, located across from their house.

It was raining heavily and the girls had their water-proof hooded jackets on.

They did not notice the approaching truck, as they ran across the road.

When Anaiah saw it from the corner of her eye, it was too late to prevent an accident. Without caring for her own safety, Anaiah pulled Camry away but was hit hard by the truck instead.

She collapsed to the ground and stopped breathing for a few minutes. Fortunately, Loretta, who witnessed the horrifying accident, ran to her rescue and performed CPR on her until she felt a heartbeat.

The two sisters were rushed to the hospital after their neighbour, Jackson, called for an ambulance. Camry was not hurt but Anaiah had suffered serious injuries to her legs.

For over ten hours, nurses like Adwin, worked to save the big-hearted girl's life but could not save her left leg. The doctors had to amputate it. Anaiah was finally released from the hospital a month later.

Section F: Comprehension (8 marks)
Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

A long time ago in England, a man called John decided to go fishing one Sunday instead of going to church. Instead of fish, all he caught was a worm. In anger, he threw it into a nearby well.

Years later, the worm came out of the well, where it had grown into a huge and ferocious monster. It destroyed the land, killing everything in sight and growing bigger and bigger. No one could kill it. As soon as it was cut, the wound would heal magically.

Soon, the worm was so big that it could wrap its body around a nearby hill seven times!

John was away fighting in a war. When he heard about the worm, he knew that he was responsible for all the trouble it was causing. He returned to England and asked a local witch to help him kill the worm. She told him to cover his armour with spikes, so that the worm would be cut into pieces when it tried to wrap itself around him.

She warned him that it could heal really fast. He should fight the worm in the river so that the pieces would be washed away before they could join together and heal. John did as he was told and the worm was soon killed.
