Section D Comprehension (10m)

Read the passage and complete the questions.

Once upon a time, there was a king who did not like to bathe. He could go on for weeks without a bath! Everyone in the castle was not willing to go near him. It was not because the king was fierce or cruel. It was because he was too dirty and smelly most of the time!

The king loved his family very much but even they were frightened to go near him. Whenever the king saw his wife or children, he would always want to hug and kiss them. Unfortunately, they would always run away from him. Soon, the king felt very sad and lonely.

The king was also unhappy as he did not like to see people around him covering their noses and standing far away from him when they talked to him.

Finally, the king could not take it anymore. He decided to take a good long bath. The servants scrubbed him for three hours using nice-smelling soap. He was finally clean and smelled good.

After that, the king called his family to him and told them that he would bathe every day. They hugged him happily.

For Q21 and Q22, please write the answers in the brackets provided.

Section D Comprehension (5x2m)

Read the passage and complete the questions.

Last Saturday morning, Mrs Lim woke up very early to go to the market. It was Tommy's birthday and she wanted to cook a delicious meal for him. She went to the market early before it got crowded to get the freshest groceries.

That morning, Mrs Lim bought fish, beef and carrots. Then, she bought a birthday cake and a jar of candy from the cake shop near the market. When she reached home, she left the cake on the dining table. Then, she started cooking.

When Mrs Lim returned to the dining table, she realised that the cake was gone!

"Tommy, did you see the cake on the table?" she asked.

"No, I did not," said Tommy.

"That's great! I hope it was the rats that had eaten it. It is meant to poison the rats," answered Mrs Lim.

"Oh no! I'm sorry. Mum! I ate the cake! Please help me!" cried Tommy.

"I've tricked you, Tommy. That's what you get for lying!" scolded Mrs Lim.

21. Why did Mrs Lim go to the market so early that day?
