Section E: Comprehension (8 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Max was getting ready for school when he realised that he could not find one of his socks.

"Mother, have you seen my other sock?" Max asked. His mother frowned and told him sternly that he should have prepared his socks the previous night as she had told him to. When Max explained he had been busy, she suggested he wear another pair of socks. After wearing his socks swiftly, Max frantically searched for his homework but it was missing.

"Mother!" Max cried. "What did you lose now?" she asked. "My homework. I did it last night. I left it on my desk, but it's not there," Max cried.

"What am I going to do?" Max asked. "Max, you're just going to have to explain to your teacher that you have lost it. If you had kept your belongings properly, this would not have happened," his mother replied.

Max walked past his three-year-old sister, Lucy, who was playing on her bed. When Lucy saw Max, she waved at him. Then she got up to hug Max. His sock and homework were on Lucy's bed. "Mother! Lucy had hidden them!" His mother laughed and said, "I guess you'll keep your things carefully from now on." Max was embarrassed. He knew it was his fault and promised to listen to his mother in future.
