Section I: Comprehension (20 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 71 to 80.

She was riding pillion on her husband's motorcycle when she saw a car speeding against the flow of traffic towards them. Before her husband could react, the Mercedes-Benz hit their bike, sending them hurtling through the air.

As Madam Janice Choo, 34, lay injured on the Ayer Rajah Expressway (AYE), her first concern was for the safety of her husband, Mr Teh Tze Yong. 5

Then, racked by pain in her left leg, her next worry was whether she could walk again. The Malaysian couple, who live here, were among five people injured in the accident just before the underpass leading to the Tuas Checkpoint on Monday morning.

A Toyota driver was killed instantly while his wife was injured. The Mercedes driver and a Mazda driver were also hurt. Businessman Lim Chai Heng, 55, was admitted to the National University Hospital (NUH) on Tuesday and charged with causing death by reckless or dangerous driving. 10

A video clip of the Mercedes hitting the motorbike has gone viral online. "It made me realise how lucky I am," Madam Choo told The New Paper yesterday from her NUH hospital bed. The administration officer said her husband was taking her to work at Tuas when the accident happened at about 8 am. 15

"I remember seeing the car coming towards me. I was shocked but I could not do anything. I remember thinking to myself, the car is definitely going to hit me," she said.

The impact sent her flying and when she landed, her first thought was of her husband. She wanted to make sure he was all right. Madam Choo was relieved when she saw him alive. She then told him that her leg hurt a lot. 20

Madam Choo has since undergone a five-hour operation on her fractured left leg. Her husband had two operations for fractures on both hands and injuries on three fingers. They are both warded at NUH but they have not been able to see each other due to their injuries. 25

The accident has made Madam Choo swear off motorcycles. She said, "I now feel afraid to ride a motorcycle." Madam Choo is worried how the injuries will affect their future. Her parents drove eight hours from their home in Perak, Malaysia, to visit the couple at NUH.

Mr Teh has just started working as a driver at Yang Kee Logistics about a month ago. "We will not be able to work for at least three months. I'm worried how we are going to pay the monthly rent for our home," she said. The couple pays $650 a month to share a three-room flat in the Pioneer area with three relatives. 30

A Yang Kee Logistics spokesman said the company had been in contact with Mr Teh's family and would work closely with them to render support. His colleagues contributed some money to help them tide over this period. 35

Another victim, Mr Tan Han Boon, 34, recalls the Mercedes-Benz charging towards him against the flow of traffic. It sends shivers down his spine. His Mazda was beyond repair. Mr Tan suffered abrasions and neck pain.

Recalling the accident, Mr Tan said, "It was very surreal, like something in a movie." He said he had swerved his car to the left to avoid the oncoming Mercedes, causing him to collide with a bus. After that, he lost track of whatever happened. 40
