The images of furry, blue-eyed, white tiger cubs tug at the heartstrings of many. These white tigers are rare and their numbers are (16) declining. Many animal activists believe that because this species of tiger is so rare, the tigers should not be held captive but instead be left out in the world, so that they can (17) procreate. However, some other animal activists have a different set of beliefs. They believe that because these animals are so rare, they should be kept in zoos, where they will be well-taken care of and are less (18) vulnerable to being hurt.

White tigers are a variant of the Bengal tiger. They are born without the pigment that makes their fur orange. Hence, their fur is white in colour. Only one out of every 10,000 Bengal tigers are born this way. Research suggests that white tigers are found (19) predominantly in Bangladesh. However, over the past few years, many hunters have reported sightings of the white tiger in the Sumatran rainforests. Whether or not this information is (20) accurate, no one knows. What we do know is that the white tiger is an endangered species and we have to do all we can to prevent its extinction.

The Annual National Spelling Whiz is back!

The National Spelling Whiz 2021 is open to Primary 4, 5 and 6 pupils in Singapore. It aims to help them appreciate the importance of spelling. Do you have tenacity, grit and resilience? If your answer is yes, then you must sign up!

In the competition, pupils will use various strategies to spell many different words both familiar and unfamiliar to them.

FORMAT OF COMPETITION

Preliminary Round (3 June 2021, 10 a.m. at Expo City)

Participants are required to take a 40-minute written test. A list of 50 words will be read out to them and they have to spell them out on paper. The top 80 participants will move on to the Semi-Final Round.

Semi-Final Round (10 June 2021, 2 p.m. at Expo City)

The Semi-Final Round will take place on stage. Words will be read out and participants will take turns to spell them aloud. Each participant is given a time limit of 1 minute to spell the word correctly. Participants who are unable to do so will be eliminated. The elimination process will continue until the top 10 participants emerge. They will compete in the Grand Final.

Grand Final (22 June 2021, 10 a.m. at University of Singapore)

The format of the Grand Final will be similar to the Semi-Final. Each participant will be given a list of 40 challenging words to spell aloud. They have to memorise these words and will be given 10 minutes to do so. Finalists are encouraged to recite these words to a friend before the actual test begins. The actual test will last for 4 minutes. The student who spells the most number of words correctly within 4 minutes will emerge as champion.

What teachers and pupils have said about the National Spelling Whiz:

"This competition is a great way to ignite the passion for an interest in spelling. I use spelling games and materials provided by the organiser to help my pupils prepare for the competition. My pupils enjoyed and loved it!"

Mrs Tan, Teacher of Greenview Primary School

"I used to hate spelling and find it boring. After taking part in the competition, I was proven wrong. I realised that spelling is very interesting. During my preparation for the competition, I studied etymology, the origin and history of words, to help me spell better and it is now my newfound love. The ability to spell the words correctly takes hours of repetition and coaching from my English teacher."

Peter Allan, 2019 Champion

"I prepared for the competition by looking through word lists. I am an avid reader and learn new words from books such as the Jelly Jackson and Percy Patter series. I've made many new friends through this competition. In the past, I was very shy and had stage fright. Now, I am comfortable on stage."

Siti Hamidah, 2020 Champion

ELIGIBILITY

All participants must be nominated and registered by their schools. The competition is open to Primary 4 to 6 pupils only.

REGISTRATION

Each school can send in a maximum of 10 pupils. Registration is based on a first-come-first-served basis and capped at 800 pupils. Schools must register online at www.singaporenews.com.sg

Electricity is a form of energy and it occurs in nature so it was not "invented." As to (29) _____ discovered it, there are many misconceptions. Some give credit to Benjamin Franklin (30) _____ discovering electricity but his experiments only helped establish the connection (31) _____ lightning and electricity, nothing more. The truth (32) _____ the discovery of electricity, however goes back more than two thousand years.

In about 600BC, the Ancient Greeks discovered that rubbing fur on hardened tree sap caused (33) _____ attraction between the two. Additionally, researchers and archeologists in the 1930s discovered pots with sheets of copper inside (34) _____ they believe may have been ancient batteries meant to produce light at ancient Roman sites. Similar devices (35) _____ found in excavation sites in Iraq, which meant that the ancient residents may have also used an early form of batteries.

By the 1800s, many electricity-related discoveries had been made, such (36) _____ the invention of an early static electricity generator, the discovery of positive and negative currents, and the grouping of materials as conductors or insulators.

(37) _____ the year 1600, English physician William Gilbert used the Latin word 'electricus' to describe the force that certain substances exert (38) _____ rubbed against each other. A few years later another English scientist, Thomas Browne, used the word 'electricity' to describe his findings of his research based on Gilbert's work.

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes. (12 marks)

Dear diary,

I had my Covid-19 vaccination today. The vaccination will help protect me against the coronavirus that causes Covid-19. Most of the time, the immune system is an iffisient system.

(39)

(40)

It either keeps viruses out or track them down and gets rid of them.

(41)

However, some viruses like the Covid-19 virus can overwreilm the immune system. When this happens, it can caused serious illness. The viruses which creating problems are the ones the body is unable to diffrenshiate. Vaccination is a way to "teach" the system how to identifies and eliminate an organism. That way, your body is prepared if you are ever axeposed.

(42)

(44)

(46)

(47)

Vaccinations are an important form of primary prevansion. That means they can protect people by getting sick. Vaccinations have allowed us to control diseases that once threthened many lives. It is important which as many people as possible get vaccinated. Vaccinations do not just protect individuals.

(48)

When enough people are vaccinated, it helps protect society.

For each of the questions 51 to 65, fill in each blank with a suitable word.

(15 marks)

'Cancel culture' refers to the popular practice of withdrawing support for public figures and companies after they have done or said something that is considered wrong or offensive. When (51) _____ is 'cancelled', it is deleted, ended or voided. This is the basic (52) _____ of "being cancelled". When someone is 'cancelled', they are no (53) _____ supported publicly. Usually public figures are said to be 'cancelled' (54) _____ it has been discovered that they have done something "wrong" or "unacceptable" based on the opinions of others.

There is also a general process to 'cancel culture'. Firstly, evidence of someone, saying or doing something "wrong" is surfaced. (55) _____ this information is spread online. Finally, netizens call for the person's 'cancellation'. This involves calling out the bad behaviour, (56) _____ support for his or her work, such as by not being a follower online or not "liking" their posts or content. In extreme cases, it involves even putting up "hate" messages on one's own social media to (57) _____ others to 'cancel' that particular figure.

In 2019, there was growing criticism (58) _____ 'cancel culture'. These criticisms questioned if people were becoming too keen to ruin the lives of others over mistakes made many years (59) _____. The "cancelled" people were not given a (60) _____ chance. Social media was too quick to pile on and set increasingly (61) _____ standards of correct or acceptable behaviour. It had simply become a way of rejecting anyone you disagreed (62) _____. Former President Barack Obama criticised 'cancel culture', arguing that social media judgments are (63) _____ always fair and just.

The specific phrase 'cancel culture' is typically negative. Outside of discussions of the phenomenon, 'cancel culture' is often used to complain that the trend of cancelling people has gone too (64) _____ or is too toxic. One should always take what they see or read online with a pinch of salt as these could have been taken out of context or are simply a small (65) _____ of the bigger picture. Being less quick to judge is the way to go.

For each of the questions 66 to 70, rewrite the given sentence(s) using the word(s) provided. Your answer must be in one sentence. The meaning of your sentence must be the same as the meaning of the given sentence(s). (10 marks)

The mynah hopped onto the window sill. Mdm Goh had been waiting for her 'friend' to arrive. The mynah flapped its wings and sang, "Here comes the sun. Here comes the sun, I say, it's alright." Mdm Goh smiled and clapped gently after the mini performance. She had thoroughly enjoyed it. This was one of the few forms of entertainment for her at the monotonous nursing home where she lived.

Two weeks ago, Mrs Goh first met the mynah when it flew into the room which Mdm Goh shared with two other women at the home. It was a sweltering August day and an acrid smell of smoke wafted in the air as if a giant smokeless fire was lit somewhere.

It did not surprise Mdm Goh when she first saw the mynah. All the trees on the plot of land next to the home were chopped down and many inhabitants had been displaced. The mynah had probably lost its home and found its way to Mdm Goh's room. There was talk that a new annex was going to be built for the home to create space for more residents. There were names that had been on the waiting list for as long as three years.

Before the mynah, other birds, insects and small animals visited the room. Butterflies, moths, dragonflies – they flitted in and out, resting on the bright pink curtains, or on the rim of the enamel washbasin with its gaily painted flowers. A squirrel scampered in once, and although it was never sighted again, Mdm Goh was certain it came back. Wafer biscuits and sunflower seeds – she had strewn these on the window sill as she wheeled herself around the room. After she woke up from her naps and inspected the sill, everything would be gone, not a seed left. It had to be the squirrel. After all, it was the only one which would like the biscuits and the seeds.

The porridge served for lunch did not taste of anything, but the mynah did not seem to mind what it was given. Some animals are not choosy. Her dog, QQ, however, would never touch leftovers. He was rescued from a drain and brought back to Mdm Goh's flat. A ten-year-old senior, he always waits patiently for Mdm Goh to finish her dinner. The moment she put her chopsticks down and got up from the table, he would trot eagerly after her, his eyes shining, mouth open and tongue hanging out. He knew exactly when she would feed him his dinner, which usually consisted of premium dog food.

25

It was in the middle of the night when QQ suddenly barked. Was someone at the door? Mdm Goh was making her way in the dark to the living room when she stepped on something, slipped and broke her hip. When she opened her eyes, QQ's furry face brushed against hers, and the dog licked her face, her hands, her feet. The whining and then the frenzied barking of the dog over several hours prompted the neighbours to call the police who had to break the lock on the door to get in. It was found out later that QQ had started barking because he had spotted a suspicious character trying to break into the house.

30

The rescuers found Mdm Goh lying on the floor and she had been placed in the nursing home right after her discharge from the hospital. Despite Mdm Goh's protests, QQ was sent to the SPCA where he was eventually adopted. Mdm Goh never even had the chance to properly thank QQ for protecting her. She was afraid to imagine the consequence if he had not scared away the would-be intruder.

35

Now, the reclusive Mdm Goh relies on the company of her new friend at the nursing home. She had always connected better with animals. There was always this connection that she could establish with ease with animals of all sorts. She kept to herself mostly, the main reason why she never married nor had any children. As she looked at the mynah eating the scraps of her lunch, she thought about how nice it would be if the mynah brought some of his friends over a meal as well. That would be one gathering she would gladly host.
