Section D: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 19 to 27.

Florence Nightingale walked quietly through the dimly lit corridor. Injured soldiers were treated at the hospital. She could hear the faint sounds of coughing. Pausing by a bed, she looked at a young soldier whose face was pale with fever.

"Are you in pain?" she asked gently, her voice soft yet firm.

The soldier nodded weakly. "Yes, ma'am. I don't feel well."

5

Florence smiled reassuringly and said, "Don't worry. You'll recover soon."

She reached for a clean cloth to wipe his forehead, noticing the grimy state of the room. "This place is filthy," she muttered to herself.

Later that evening, Florence met with her hardworking fellow nurses. "Cleanliness is key to saving lives," she said passionately.

10

"But Florence, we need more cleaning supplies," one of the nurses replied, concerned.

"We'll make do," Florence said with determination. "We will use what we have to help these soldiers."

Upon hearing that, the nurses mumbled amongst themselves. Some raised their eyebrows while others shook their heads.

15

"We don't have enough supplies to help the soldiers," Nurse Lily said, unconvinced.

However, Nurse Lucy said, "Florence is changing everything, one patient at a time." She trusted Florence. Indeed, Florence Nightingale changed the future of nursing forever.
