Part 7: Comprehension Passage 1 (8 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions that follow.

Steve Jobs was born in 1955 in California. From a young age, he was very curious and loved to learn how things work. Steve did not go to college for long but never stopped learning. He followed his passion for technology and design.
In 1976, Steve and his friend, Wozniak, started a small company called Apple in Steve's garage. Their dream was to create something simple and beautiful. At that time, computers were large and complicated. However, they wanted to make computers that were easy for everyone to use and move around.	5
Their first computer, the Apple I, was unpopular and sold to just a few people. It was not perfect but it showed what they could do. Then, Steve worked hard to make the Apple II. This computer became very popular and helped Apple grow.	10
However, in 1985, Steve had a big dispute with Apple's leaders and left the company he helped create. Instead of giving up, Steve started a new company called NeXT and some years later, he bought a small animation studio called Pixar. Pixar went on to create famous movies like Toy Story which many children and adults love till today.	15
In 1997, Apple was struggling and Steve was invited back to lead the company. He introduced new products like the iPhone and iPad. His ideas changed the world. These devices made technology accessible to people.
Steve was someone who never gave up even when things were hard. He believed in dreaming big and working hard to make those dreams real.	20

Read the passage carefully and answer questions that follow.

April Fools' Day is celebrated every year on 1 April. On this day, people play pranks and tricks on each other. Do you know how it all began?
A long time ago, many countries used different calendars to mark the start of the new year. In some places, like France, the new year was celebrated on 1 April. However, in 1582, France changed its calendar to the Gregorian calendar which has the new year starting on 1 January.	5
Some people did not know about this change or simply refused to accept it. They kept celebrating the new year on 1 April. These people were made fun of by others who started to play tricks on them. These pranksters would send their victims on silly errands or give them fake gifts.	10
This tradition of playing pranks on 1 April slowly spread to other countries and people began to call the day "April Fools' Day" because those who were tricked became the 'fools'.
April Fools' Day is still remembered around the world. People play harmless jokes on friends and family. It is a day full of laughter and fun but it is important to remember not to hurt anyone with the pranks.	15
On 1 April, be ready for some fun tricks but always be kind and careful!
